Another Day in Paradise she wasnâ€™t scared to death, or if there wasnâ€™t a group of screaming women chasing after them, she could have kept better control. Still, after moving about four-hundred feet, the wing was directly over her head so she lifted her arms, opened the throttle wider and prayed they would leave the ground.

Another Day In Paradise. The lyrics to this song makes you really think about the plight of poor/homeless people, so it is conscientiousness-raising; the beauty of the music softens the pangs of guilt if one has not been so kind-hearted to some of those who are not as fortunate/blessed as most of us.
