Each of us desires an unshakable testimony â€” one that can withstand the doubts, questions, and challenges that come so frequently in our lives. The Lord gives clear guidance on how to build a faith that, like a pyramid, has a firm, solid, and broad foundation. The task is not difficult, but we must know the blueprint.

Some simple examples of this in my testimony of the LDS Church are that Christâ€™s Church had apostles and prophets before (See Ephesians 4:11), and so it makes sense that His Church would have prophets and apostles today. In the Bible we have many teachings of baptism, but there is confusion throughout the Christian Churches in regards to the mode of baptism, purpose of baptism, necessity of baptism, and who should (or needs) to be baptized.
